Hidden Arch Trailhead is where you park and it is usually very full. You walk down the road ¼ mile to the pin to start the trail. At the pin is an outhouse or you can go to the campground bathhouse for a much nicer bath room. On some Google maps, it shows the pin as the Silvermine Arch trailhead, this is incorrect. Both trails start at the Hidden Arch parking lot.

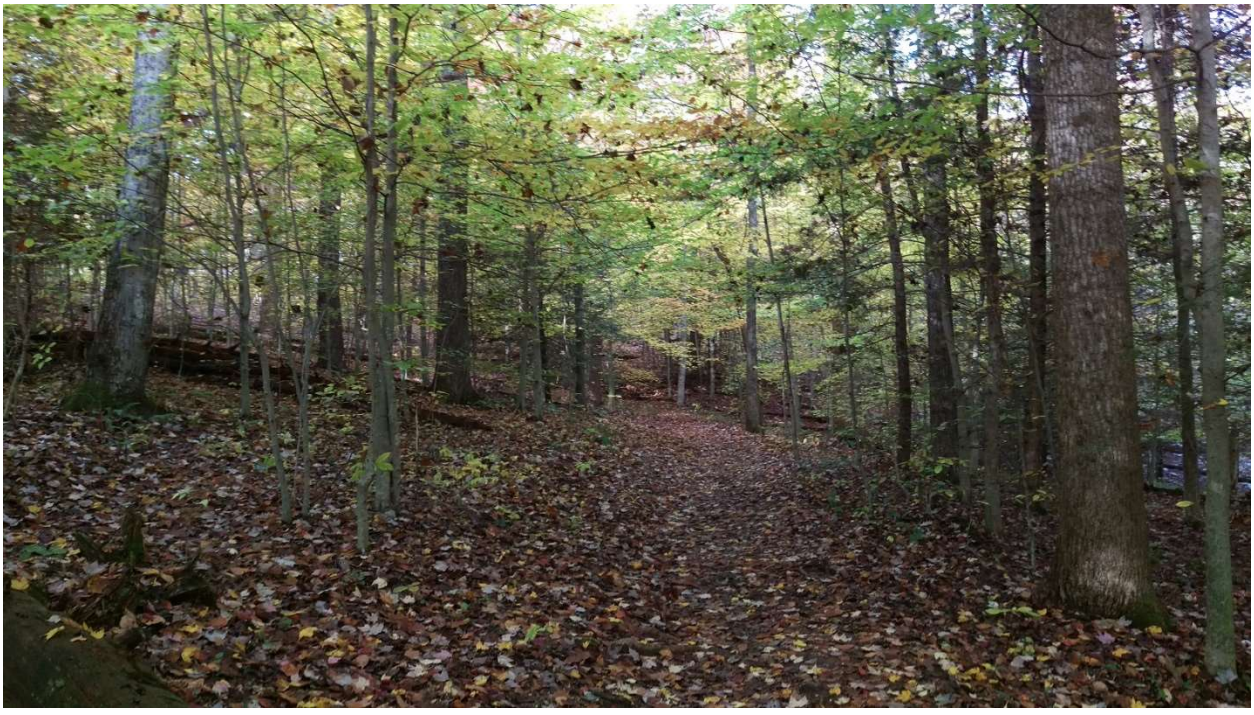

The coordinates of the start of the trail (and outhouse) is given below.
